Cllr Jones written report included:

Councillor Liz Harvey wants more Herefordshire residents to come forward and join in the consultation financial budget for 2022 to 2023. People can still give their suggestions and contribute on line up to the 4th October. The council are looking to make savings of £11 million pounds on one scale but to borrow £20 to £40 million pounds at low interest rate over 50 years to make essential road surface improvements around the county.

There is a free bus service running at weekends since the 4th September throughout Herefordshire. You can travel free of charge as long as you stay within the county. Extra buses have been laid on to travel to Ledbury, Leominster, Kington and other Herefordshire towns. This free weekend service will run for 12 months and is being funded by a covid recovery grant from central government to Herefordshire Council.

Herefordshire Council Children's Services is still experiencing difficulties. The Offsted visit in July acknowledged that there was a New Management Team in place and that home visits to vulnerable children still took place throughout the pandemic lock down. But were critical that case-loads for social workers were too high. There is an improvement board set up with representatives from all parts of the council children's services with an improvement plan to get agencies working closer together especially with legal services to prevent escalation occurring.

The Interim Director of Children's Services, Catherine Knowles who joined the council six months ago has resigned with immediate effect. There was a whistle blowing enquiry triggered from a member of staff some five weeks ago about the Interim Director of Children's Services. Darryl Freeman has now taken over as Interim Director until a new permanent Director is recruited. The council legal service team has currently lost three members of staff which like all sectors is struggling to find replacements leading to using more agency lawyers.

Hoope have now taken over the running of Maylord Orchards which the council purchased some 12months ago, recognising the specialist nature to run and support this retail business into the future.

Hereford city centre old bridge re-opened on the 1st October for vehicles to travel over and ease some of the congestion. Parking restriction white lining will also be removed on Bridge Street to bring back some normality and improve trading to those businesses that operate in that area.

Full council meeting will take place at the Three Counties Hotel on the 8th October which can be attended by the public or watched on line.

Resolved: Report noted and already circulated.
